City Tour with Moscow Metro (5 hrs)

See the highlights of Moscow - Red Square, the Kremlin walls and Cathedral of Christ the Saviour. Travel underground for an amazing display of marble, mosaics, chandeliers and sculptures. Each metro station is unique. Established in 1935, the Moscow Metro is one of the most efficient transport systems in the world.

Daily.

City Tour with Metro and St. Basil's Cathedral (6 hrs)

See Moscow's major sights including a trip on the famous Metro and enter Moscow's most iconic building - St. Basil's Cathedral - commissioned by Ivan the Terrible in 1552 to celebrate the capture of the Tatar city of Kazan.

Daily except Wed.

Food Lovers' City Tour with Metro (7 hrs)

See Moscow's major landmarks by car and enjoy a tour of the amazing Moscow Metro. Gain an insight into the city's culinary history, joining the locals as they shop for fresh produce and gourmet items. Visit Moscow's oldest farmers' market where store holders from all over Russia and Central Asia display their amazing produce, inviting you to taste. Browse through the opulent Eliseevsky Food Store, established exclusively for the nobility in 1901 and nicknamed 'The Palace of Gluttony'. It remains a popular shopping stop for Muscovites to this day.

Daily.

Moscow by Night (3 hrs)

Experience the fairy tale magic of Moscow by night. You will see all the major sights magnificently illuminated with many great photo opportunities.

Daily.

Moscow River Cruise (2 hrs)

Join the locals on a leisurely Moscow River cruise. Glide past Moscow's major landmarks - the Kremlin, Cathedral of Christ the Saviour, Novodevichy Convent and Gorky Park. Choose from a local cruise operating May-Sep with your own guide or a Radisson Royal Cruise without guide which also operates at night and all year round with meals and drinks on board.

Daily.

Kremlin, Cathedral & Armoury (4 hrs)

Not to be missed! Visit the Kremlin grounds to see the Tsar's Bell and Cannon, Kremlin walls and towers.

Enter a cathedral where the tsars were baptised, crowned and buried. Visit the State Armoury Museum, housing a unique collection of crown jewels, gems, thrones, carriages, costumes (including the wedding and coronation dresses worn by Catherine the Great), Fabergé Eggs and much more.

Daily except Thu.

Tretyakov Art Gallery (3.5 hrs)

The Gallery houses a collection of Russian art that traces the development of Russian culture, offering a rich and revealing insight into the history and attitude of the Russian people. The collection ranges from 11th century icons to the politically charged canvases of Russia's favourite realist master, Ilya Repin. A worthwhile extension to the Tretyakov project is the new building of the Tretyakov Gallery located at Krymsky Val (not far from Gorky Park), which houses a unique exhibition of national 20th century art. Well-known artists such as Kandinsky, Chagall and Malevich are well represented.

Daily except Mon.

Pushkin Fine Arts Museum (3.5 hrs)

The Pushkin Fine Arts Museum contains the second largest collection of Western European art in Russia, ranging from the Middle Ages to the 20th century - Italian Renaissance, Dutch still-life paintings, Rembrandt, Rubens and the ancient world (Egypt, Syria, Assyria, Greece, Rome). The museum also houses a separate exhibition featuring the largest collection of French Impressionist painters in Russia.

Daily except Mon.

Novodevichy Convent & Cemetery (3 hrs)

Novodevichy Convent was founded in 1524. Apart from its religious significance, it served as a place of imprisonment for noblewomen. Adjoining the convent is a necropolis where many cultural and political figures are buried - the writers Chekhov and Gogol, singer Feodor Chaliapin, poet Mayakovsky, composer Shostakovich and political figures such as Krushchev and Yeltsin.

Daily except Tue & first Mon of month.

Central Museum of Contemporary Russian History (3 hrs)

Housed in the opulent 18th century mansion that was once the premises of the exclusive English Club, this museum covers Russia's recent and turbulent history from

Privately escorted sightseeing

1905 to the present. You will learn all about the country's revolutionary, political, economic and cultural struggles including the Space Race and Perestroika.

Daily except Mon.

Bunker 42 (2.5 hrs)

Relive the tensions of the Cold War when you descend 65 metres below ground to the top secret nuclear bunker 42, a unique underground facility located in the centre of Moscow. Opened as an emergency command post headquarters in 1951 and secretly connected to the Taganskaya metro station, this fascinating once-secret military complex, bunker and Spare Long-Range Aviation Command Post complex is now a museum dedicated to the Cold War. Daily.

Cosmonautics Museum (3.5 hrs)

A must for space devotees. The world's first satellite was sent into space from the Soviet Union on 4 October 1957. A contest was announced to design a monument to mark this historic event and five years later the huge monument was unveiled on Moscow's Prospekt Mira. In 1981, to celebrate the twentieth anniversary of the first manned space flight, the base of the monument was opened as the Cosmonautics Memorial Base. It features satellite models, original space suits, the interior of part of the Mir space station and documents from famous cosmonauts such as Yuri Gagarin.

Daily except Mon & Tue.

Monino Aviation Museum (6 hrs)

One of the world's largest aviation museums, featuring over 170 aircraft including MiGs and Sukhois. This open-air aviation museum is located 40 km east of Moscow on an air force base. Tours are conducted by on-site guides.

Daily except Mon & Tue.

Sergiev Posad (6 hrs)

Travel by car 75 km north of Moscow, passing picturesque dacha settlements, to the UNESCO World Heritage-listed Trinity Monastery complex of St. Sergius. Founded in the 14th century by St. Sergius of Radonezh, Sergiev Posad is the spiritual bastion of Russian Orthodoxy and a popular place of pilgrimage. Boris Godunov is buried here - the only tsar not buried in the Kremlin or St. Petersburg's Peter & Paul Fortress.

Daily except Mon.
