News

In 2019, Volga Dream launches the new, top-of-the-range Imperial Class for the discerning traveller in search of that extra level of comfort and luxury. During your 3-night stays in Moscow and St. Petersburg, your hotel accommodation will be at the luxurious Four Seasons Hotel in Moscow and Four Seasons Lion Palace in St. Petersburg.

River Cruising in Russia

There is no easier way to explore Russia than through its ancient waterways on a relaxing river cruise. You pack and unpack once and have no need to worry about early morning starts. River Cruising in Russia is a step back in time, venturing into Russia's heartland. It offers the opportunity to travel beyond Moscow and St. Petersburg to experience life in the riverside towns and rural settlements.

For those who have already travelled this route, you can venture south to the Lower Volga and visit magical places like Nizhny Novgorod, Kazan, Samara, Saratov and Volgograd.

The MS Volga Dream Difference

Your Cruise Tour on the family-owned MS Volga Dream has a unique advantage over other river cruise companies. With most other cruise companies, during your stays in Moscow and St. Petersburg, you stay on board ship, moored at the river port on the outskirts of the city. This involves lengthy transfers to and from your ship each day and restricts your opportunities for independent sightseeing.

On your Volga Dream Cruise Tour you spend three nights in centrally located 5-star hotels, minutes from the major attractions in both Moscow and St. Petersburg, enabling you to make the most of your valuable time in these two amazing cities.

That's the Volga Dream difference!

Satisfied clients

"We want to tell you how happy we were with that wonderful journey. Moscow was terrific, St. Petersburg was terrific, the various guides were terrific, but most of all, the Volga Dream boat trip from Moscow to St. Petersburg was more than terrific: a wonderful boat, fantastic scenery, very interesting stopovers along the river and especially, a most professional, courteous, polite, friendly and happy crew."
